

Bealming Soodles & Nerve Doubt Jammers: Sweet Little Ukulele Ditties

- Dave Knott is a sound artist, improviser, and music therapist
- 50+ minutes of solo ukulele music on cassette, cd, & digital
- a collection of short sound meditations & tunes
- contemplative, slowly-evolving repetitions alternate with peppy hokum
- old timey avant-garde meets lo-fi flip flop

Bandcamp // Spotify

"Everyone needs some music that soothes and allows for decompression of the mind and soul. This is that music. Dave's delicate, intricate, engaging and just plain beautiful solo ukulele is the balm you need for tumultuous times. Apply it liberally."

- Jeffery Taylor, Wall of Sound

"Knott's knack for tender melodiousness and mesmerizing repetition makes this 22-track album a pleasurable breeze to bask in...he's twined poignancy with hypnosis in a way that only those operating on a higher vibration can achieve."

- Dave Segal, the Stranger

Instagram // Website

playful solo acoustic ukulele music and experimental and unconventional old-time pieces challenge the listener's expectations and push the boundaries of what is considered "standard"

...

music that helps the listener focus their mind and maintain clarity or overcome doubts and anxieties

Cassette & CD release party

Saturday, October 21 3-5pm

Zeitgeist Art & Coffee

171 S. Jackson St., Seattle